Each year, twelve students are nominated by faculty to receive the most prestigious undergraduate award in the Art Department at UCSC. The Irwin Scholarship recognizes and celebrates the vision of promising artists, selected for their academic excellence, creativity and potential. For the past 26 years the Sesnon Art Gallery has showcased the outstanding work of the recipients during the Irwin Exhibition at the Mary Porter Sesnon Art Gallery and it has become the most celebrated event of the year.

Faculty Advisor: Beth Stephens

Elizabeth Stephens is a performance artist, activist and educator working in the intersection between queerness, feminism and environmentalism for more than 25 years.
